It is with a great deal of pride that we announce the February program to our patrons. In choosing the shows for the various days of the month we have been guided by one thought, and that is to further clinch the argument that "the AMUSU is the best picture house in Southwest Texas."

Fildom's stars will act for you this month at the AMUSU. Call to mind your favorite actors and actresses, and you will find them among this month's program. That king of actors, Douglas Fairbanks, will vie with such stars as Fatty Arbuckle, and that dramatic actor, Robert Warwick. Lovely Mary Pickford, and demure Irene Castle will be here to charm you, as well as other feminine characters in appealing roles.

JUST A FEW OF THE STARS

Buying Pictures is like buying merchandise: the theater man must please the whims and fancies of his patrons, just as the dry goodsman must his. Before we buy any picture we weigh it against the way our patrons will like it. Experience has proved to us that this is the best policy and we intend to be guided by it. We will continue to show first-run pictures only, and as soon and sometimes sooner, than shown in Texas' larger city picture houses. Besides the theme productions, we especially recommend to you the "Literary Digest Topics," and "Current Events." For comedies, always "Mack Sennett," "Rainbows," "Lyon-Morans," and "Big V's." They are the best the picture market affords.
